Waseda Team to Practise Today at Athletic Park

Manager Kono Confident That Japanese Team Will Make Good Showing Against Locals—Cho, Chinese Center Fielder, One of the Stars of the Visitors—Kishi Slated to Oppose Honolulu and Kawashima the Chinese—Paresa Has Good Lineup

LINE-UP FOR SATURDAY.

Our old game of baseball will receive another test on Saturday afternoon when the Waseda University team, champions of Japan, line up against Paresa's stars of the Honolulu squad. In this contest Paresa states that he will start with a victory, but Manager Kono of the visitors is confident that the Waseda team will show a heap in their first game.

Although the players have not worked out yet, the news from Japan means that they will be a strong squad, and Pat Page states that the Japanese team is hard to beat. Manager Kono will take his squad out to Athletic Park today for their first workout, beginning at 2:30. The boys all had a fine trip, and state that they will try to win the majority of games from the local teams.

A Game Bench. The Waseda players are fighters, according to Paul Des Jardien, the big Chicago pitcher, and do not quit until the last man is out. This kind of a team is always welcomed at Athletic Park, and inasmuch as the Japanese teams have always displayed speed on the bases and fine fielding, the fans have turned out in the past.

A team showing speed on the bases and trying hard at all times is naturally a card, and Manager Kono asserts that the fans will realize that the Waseda squad is out there trying all the time. Even the Meiji were fast on the paths and in the field, but they couldn't hit a farm with a hay rake. The Waseda team is said to consist of good hitters, and inasmuch as they managed to slam a number of hits off Page and Des Jardien, who rank with the local pitchers, Kono believes that they will show something with the stick. Chinese Outfielder. Cho, the little Chinese center fielder, is said to be a fast and thorough ball player, while Kato is supposed to be a pocket edition of Donie Bush. With these two stars in the line-up, and Asanuma, the captain, a steady player at the second sack, and three hitters in the outfield, the squad should rank well with the local teams. Kono will most likely send Kishi on the mound against Honolulu on Saturday and keep Kawashima for the Chinese in the Sunday game. The latter pitcher is said to be the best in Japan, and only in one game did the Chicago players hit him to any extent. Williams or Meyers.

Kishi has good speed and a variety of curves, and the Waseda players are banking on winning the first game from the Honolulu. "Blondy" Williams or Meyers will adorn the mound for the local squad, and Nishi will be stationed behind the plate. Both pitchers have a good record, and Meyers has been keeping in shape by hurrying for one of the Maui teams.

Paresa is confident of downing the visitors, but the boss will not have any cinch, although he has lined up a strong squad. The Honolulu are the only team that did not suffer when the Travelers left for the coast, and the line-up will be about the same as when they stacked up against the Olympics.

Owing to the recent discussion the men who are back of the series have decided to abandon the $1 prices, which promised to give the game a black eye here with any other than a fast league teams playing. The Olympic and Waseda games are not worth $1 for a front seat, and if the big league charge is again started the fans will naturally turn away from the games. The men behind the present series realize this, and "hold up" charges are a thing of the past.

SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, April 2.—A new record for extra inning games was established in the First Infantry Regimental League today when Company G battled with F for 17 innings and finally obtained the winning run just as dusk was about to descend on the Schofield plain. The first nine innings were replete with runs, hits and errors, but when the last half of the ninth closed with the score 6 to 6, both teams settled down and played pretty ball until two out in the last half of the seventeenth Company G slipped over the winning run. York pitched for Company F and threw a fine game, but ragged support was his undoing. He struck out 27 men in the 17 innings and allowed nine hits, all but three of which came in the first eight innings. Stevens and Mashaw did the twirling for G, and while their backing was not of the best the errors came at less inopportune times than the bobbles made by Company F. This is the second game that Company F has lost and ties it with Company M for first place. There are only a few more games for each team to play and the game next Tuesday between M and F, the two leaders, should just about decide how the finish will be.

FRED FULTON HAS CHANCE TO CLASH WITH BIG CHAMP

[Associated Press by Federal Wireline.] NEW YORK, N. Y., April 4.—Fred Fulton of Rochester, Minnesota, who had an opportunity to meet Jess Willard, was sidetracked for Frank Moran, who will be given an opportunity to meet Big Jess in the near future. Last night the Minnesota heavyweight signed articles calling for three fights before Independence Day.

Johnny Mack has secured sufficient capital to give the Rochester giant three bouts with the leaders in the business before tackling the Kansas champion. He will meet Al Bellet about May 1. Jim Coffey was knocked out later, and Frank Moran about July 4.

Fulton will have to show something in these three bouts, as all three opponents have made a good record in the ring. He will receive $25,000 for the three bouts, the affairs being 10

POST GOLFERS IN TRIM FOR MATCH WITH TOWN TEAM

Schofield and Honolulu Will Meet in Tourney at Country Club Saturday and Sunday

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence.]

SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, April 2.—The Schofield Barracks golf course is crowded to capacity every day now, and the officers here are working overtime to get themselves in shape for the coming return match with the Oahu Country Club, which is only one week away. The first match between the officers stationed on Oahu and the Country Club was played at Schofield about two months ago, and the team of 25 players from town were defeated by one match. The Country Club is seeking revenge and the return match will be played at the Country Club on Saturday and Sunday, April 8th and 9th. The officers' team will be composed of 16 players from Schofield Barracks, and nine from Shafter and department headquarters. The officers from Schofield Barracks will be somewhat handicapped on the Country Club course as for the most part they have played very little if any on club's grounds.

When the troops were in Honolulu during the Carnival, the Country Club very hospitably opened their grounds to the officers who were not members and many of them took advantage of the kindness to make themselves familiar with the town course. The Country Club team were up against the same handicap when they played out at Schofield in the last match, so the coming contest should even things up. It is not definitely decided what officers from Honolulu will be selected for the team, but the Schofield contingent will probably comprise the following: Majors Tayman and Horn; Captains Carey, Knight, Loud, Doane and Macnab; Lieuts. Snow, Schneider, White, Reardon, Harbold, Bliss, Tinker, Goussier and E. F. Rice. The recent tour in the field threw most of the players slightly off their game, but everybody is rapidly getting back to their old form. Lieut. Snow is probably playing the best game at Schofield, and his recent work has caused his handicap to be cut until now he is playing scratch along with J. I. B. Greig. Capt. Macnab is a new member of the team having only recently arrived for duty in the department. He is a player of no mean ability and his play will no doubt place him among the topnotchers before long.

CUMMINGS MADE BEST TIME FOR LOCAL RIDERS

Honolulu Boy Has Record Mark for Ride From Honolulu to Pali; Better's Baker's Time

Eddie Cummings who claims the local amateur record for the trip around the island on a motor-cycle, has been making a great name for himself in racing circles, and promises to add to his reputation by annexing new marks in road races. His record, which is close to the professional mark made by Baker, should stand for some time, unless Cummings lowers it in his attempts during the next few weeks.

Cummings claims to have beaten the by Baker from Honolulu to the Pali, the exact time consumed being 1 hour and 44 minutes. This time was made on a single speed Excelsior. Cummings was timed from Honolulu to Haleiwa, a distance of 32.7 miles, in 36 minutes. He went to Haula in 1 hour and 7 minutes, to Waikane in 1 hour and 21 minutes, and to Honolulu to 2 hours, 15 minutes and 20 seconds.

Baker Had Advantage.

Baker, who is well known as a road racer in the United States, weighs 230 pounds, while Cummings tips the fairbanks at 137, which naturally gives the professional a big advantage over the local boy, say the supporters of the latter. Cummings is popular among the other riders and they are all pulling for him to set a new mark in racing.

It would settle the question of local supremacy if the seven or eight leading riders in the city could meet in a match race on the Kapiolani Park track or on a stretch of road. In this way the speed lovers would have an opportunity to judge the merits of the riders.

Cummings is capable of making fast time, and if the track at Kapiolani Park could be placed in condition the race for championship honors would be bound to be a feature event in local sports. Since the motorcycle race at Kapiolani park, and since the visit of Joe Wolters, the speed king, the interest in motorcycling has grown, and with Honolulu boys making good marks the prospect for keen competition is bright.

RACING ASSOCIATION ON MAUI WILL HOLD FANCY DRESS BALL

The annual fancy dress ball will be given by the Maui Racing Association during the month of May. According to an old and honored custom this ball always precedes the great Fourth of July races and is one of the most brilliant social functions of the year. The season's first polo tournament is scheduled to come off on the same day and will be between the Maui and Oahu teams. The new polo field at Keahua will be the arena. The Maui gladiators have already begun practicing for the great contest and great hopes are entertained for a Maui victory.—Maui Times.

KAAWA TEAM SCORES OVER HEEIAS' SUNDAY

At the Kaawa grounds last Sunday afternoon the Kaawa scored an easy victory over the Heeia team in a one-sided game of baseball, the contest ending with a score of 15 to 2. Boxing Bouts at Post Bring Out Large Crowd

Bobby Moore Slips Kayo Over on Willie Burns Last Night at 1st Infantry Hall—Patrick Makes Great Showing in Bout With Jankowski—Next Big Card Will Be Staged on April 24 At Post, When Quinn and Dennis Meet in Main Event

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence.] SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, April 4.—The 1st Infantry Athletic Club held its first smoker last night at the regimental amusement hall, and six lively boxing bouts were enjoyed by the 700 or more members of the new club. The membership of the club is limited to the capacity of the hall, and there is plenty of room for more members. Lieut. J. W. Simons, Jr., athletic officer of the 1st Infantry, intends to hold a smoker every month, and if every entertainment is as good as the one held last night the popularity of the club will know no bounds.

The main event was between Bobby Moore of K Company and Willie Burns of G, and was scheduled to go six rounds. Moore is one of the favorite ring performers at Schofield, and it looked in the first round as if he had run up against a little more than he could manage. Burns pushed the fight and waded into Moore like a whirlwind, following him around the ring. Moore kept out of his way and covered, occasionally stopping his rash adversary with a straight arm jab.

Burns is Knocked Out. In the second round it was much the same, but only for a few seconds. Burns had lost much of his speed, and all of a sudden Moore landed a short right arm jab to the jaw. Moore sank to the floor and took the count, and then some. Both men weighed in the neighborhood of 130 pounds.

The semi-finals consisted of a six-round bout between A. Eckstein of the Machine Gun Company and William J. Fitzgerald of Company F. Both weighed in the neighborhood of 125 pounds. It was a good little go and some stiff punches were exchanged. In the first round Eckstein did most of the fighting and gained much applause. Fitzgerald and a little the best of it in the second, but thereafter it was nip and tuck, and the go ended with the honors about even. No decision was given by the referee.

Fast Preliminaries. William F. Griffin of Company F and Albert A. Hildebrandt of Company H entered the ring for the first bout of the entertainment. They swung at each other for four rounds with very little display of science. Griffin had the stronger punch and in the fourth had Hildebrandt on the mat for a count of seven. Hildebrandt stuck it out, however, and left the ring rejoicing that he had no more rounds to go.

Frank Cunningham of G Company and Jimmy Curtin of E went on for the second go, Curtin substituting for Charlie Mack, who was unable to appear on account of illness. Curtin stuck out the four rounds against Cunningham, who he found to be a shifty little scrapper. Cunningham is a strong fighter and got in some telling jabs at close range.

Patrick Makes a Hit. Trop Patrick of C Company put up the best exhibition of boxing that was seen last evening, and it is a regret to all that he leaves for the mainland on the transport sailing about April 13. He is fast on his feet and has a free swing that is liable to knock anything silly that gets in front of it. Adam A. Jankowski of Company H was the one to get in front of it last night. It is much to Jankowski's credit that he dared to get in front of it at all, and still more to his credit that he remained there for a period of almost four minutes' duration. The weight of Patrick was announced as 165 pounds, while that of Jankowski was announced as 170. The go was to be for four rounds, but Jankowski came to grief in the second as above stated.

Number four on the program was a four-round match between Harry A. Phillips of G Company and Joseph Shan of K Company. They were both announced as weighing 122 pounds, but it was plain to anyone taking a half sight on Shan that he outweighed his opponent by something around 70 pounds. Shan is a husky little fighter and puts his whole weight into his swings. He kept on his feet, too, and is the kind that the fans would like to see in the ring again. Phillips put up a plucky fight against Shan and stayed the full four rounds. He took some hard punches and gave almost as many in return.

Though all the participants were from the 1st Infantry, Lieut. Simons hopes at the next smoker to have a few ringsters from some of the other regiments. Lieut. Robert Sears refereed all the bouts and handled them in the style. The announcements were made by Cpl. J. Quinn of H Company, who is to meet Cpl. Edward Dennis of the 91st Company, Coast Artillery Corps, in the main event at the big boxing exhibition to be staged at the post athletic park on April 24. Chaplain Fealy was present, looking over the contestants with a view to selecting clever mitt artists for future exhibitions, and he was greatly disappointed when he found that Patrick was to leave the garrison so soon.

Membership in the club is open to all officers of the army and to all enlisted men of the 1st Infantry. There is no initiation fee, and the monthly dues are 50 cents for officers and 2 cents for enlisted men. The training expenses of the boxers and wrestler and all other expenses incidental to athletic exhibitions will be paid out of the funds of the club, but no prize will be given to the contestants. Those desiring to box or wrestle a future exhibition are requested to confer with Cpl. Quinn.

Chaplain Fealy has decided to hold the bouts which he had arranged to hold on Saint Patrick's Day and which had to be postponed on account of so many troops being in the field will be staged at the ball grounds on Monday, the 24th of April. The entertainment will be for the entire garrison and no admission will be charged.

It is predicted by many that the bout between Quinn and Dennis will be a more thrilling affair than those in which Potts and Rufus Williams gained so much popularity. Quinn is without doubt the best man of his weight at Schofield, and it is said that Dennis has a record of 32 knock outs.

EWA TEAM WINS FIRST GAME OF PLANTATION LEAGUE IN 12 INNINGS

The first game of the Plantation League was played at Ewa Sunday to April 2, between teams of Aiea and Ewa, and was won by Ewa in the twelfth inning, score 17 to 16.

The league this year is composed of three teams, Ewa, Aiea and Waijahua, and is playing for two cups. One is a large perpetual cup given by the three plantations, and the other cup is presented by E. O. Hall & Sonks to be the property of the league champion.
